DOWNING STREET,

23 August, 1912.

My Lord,

I have the honour to request you to inform your Ministers that I understand that the Reverend J G. Barrow, who lived in Tristan da Cunha from 1907 to 1909, is still anxious to revisit the Island should a suitable opportunity offer itself.

2. Mr. Barrow has spent some time in South America looking for a ship to take him to Tristan da Cunha but has been unable to find one. It is, however, possible that a vessel might be sailing from Capetown which would be prepared to call there.

3. I shall be obliged if your Ministers will be good enough to bear the matter in mind, and if you would give me the earliest possible intimation of any opportunity which may occur or be expected to occur of communicating with Tristan.

I have the honour to be,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient,

humble Servant,

L. Harcourt.
